

***Training Opportunity*****

For Law Enforcement Managers and Administrators at all levels, Internal Affairs Investigators and Supervisors, Government Risk Managers, Legal Advisors, Personnel Administrators, and all Persons in any way responsible for Police Training and Standards, First Line Supervisors and FTOs.

Randy Means

Thomas and Means, LLP

Presents

Organizational Discipline and Supervision for Law Enforcement

Effectiveness, Integrity, Discipline, Accountability,
Risk Management, Liability Prevention

Co-Hosted by the

Bellevue Police Department

A One Day Training Program

August 21, 2008 0830-1630

at

Bellevue Fire Training Center

Instructor

Randy Means is nationally recognized as one of the country's foremost police legal advisors and law enforcement trainers. His work has been mentioned in the Wall Street Journal, discussed on 60 Minutes and featured on the Law Enforcement Television Network. He is the primary legal and risk management instructor for the International Association of Chiefs of Police, and teaches regularly in a variety of law enforcement supervision, leadership and command colleges. He has conducted law enforcement training in 47 states and Canada.

Cost:

$20 per participant

To Register Participants or to Obtain Additional Information Please Contact:

Lt. Mark Elbert, Bellevue Police Department

Phone: (402) 293-3106

melbert@bellevue.net